

FOOD HANDLER TRAINING

Food safety is essential to protecting the health of our community. This training provides food handlers with the knowledge and skills to prevent foodborne illnesses, including proper handwashing, safe food temperatures, cross-contamination prevention, and hygienic food preparation practices. Learn how to keep food safe from delivery to service and ensure a healthy environment for everyone.

Dates:	Location:	Times:
April 15, 2026	Fort Defiance OEHE Conference Room	10:00AM and 1:00PM
June 10, 2026	Fort Defiance OEHE Conference Room	10:00AM and 1:00PM
July 15, 2026	Fort Defiance OEHE Conference Room	10:00AM and 1:00PM
September 16, 2026	Fort Defiance OEHE Conference Room	10:00AM and 1:00PM
October 14, 2026	Fort Defiance OEHE Conference Room	10:00AM and 1:00PM
November 18, 2026	Fort Defiance OEHE Conference Room	10:00AM and 1:00PM

Important Information:

- Free Class
- Complete the training and pass the exam to receive your blue card
- Arrive on time
- Class lasts about 2 hours
- No children aged 12 and under
- Maximum of 15 participants
- Park in the gravel lot west of the Emergency Department

For more information contact:

Indian Health Service - Navajo Area
 Fort Defiance Office of Environmental Health
 Phone: (928) 729-8440

