

FOOD HANDLER TRAINING COURSES

- ◇ Required for all food service employees on the Navajo Nation, including temporary food vendors
- ◇ Accredited by the Navajo Department of Health

Less than two hour class covering Food Safety Practices, including:

- ⇒ Cross Contamination
- ⇒ Time and Temperature
- ⇒ Handwashing and more...

THIRD QUARTER TRAINING DATES CHINLE & FORT DEFIANCE SERVICE UNITS

| DATE | LOCATION | TIME (DST) |
|------------|--|-------------------|
| 04/08/2026 | Forest Lake Chapter | 10:00 am–12:00 pm |
| 04/15/2026 | Many Farms Chapter (Requested) | 10:00 am–12:00 pm |
| 04/22/2026 | Lukachukai Chapter | 10:00 am–12:00 pm |
| 04/29/2026 | Chinle Grace Fellowship Church (Requested) | 10:00 am–12:00 pm |
| 05/14/2026 | Ganado Chapter | 10:00 am–12:00 pm |
| 05/20/2026 | St. Michaels Chapter House | 10:00 am–12:00 pm |
| 06/10/2026 | Wide Ruins Chapter House | 10:00 am–12:00 pm |
| 06/24/2026 | Hard Rock Chapter House | 10:00 am–12:00 pm |

Presented by
Navajo Office of Environmental Health
& Protection Program
(928) 871-7940

- ⇒ NO PRE-REGISTRATION REQUIRED
- ⇒ DO NOT BRING YOUNG CHILDREN TO THE TRAINING
- ⇒ Bring a pen/pencil and a notepad
- ⇒ The training will be taught in English—bring a Navajo interpreter, if needed
- ⇒ To earn a Food Service Training Certificate (blue) card, all participants must attend the training and pass the test
- ⇒ NOEH is now accepting debit/credit cards and money order payments for the Itinerant Food Permit (pink) card
 - Pay to NAVAJO NATION
 - $5 for six-months or $10 for one-year